NUFORM 431, $1

NUFORM 432, $2

Designed especially to give the igure the lines for the prevailing fashions in Princess Gowns. Constructed sectionally, making the garment fit snugly at all points, giving an absolutely smooth surface without bulge or ridge. Made of

Also made in heavier fabrics at

$1, $1.50, $2 and $8. WEINGARTEN BROS., Mfrs. 571-579 Broadway, New York all in green and pale lavender, the flowers used being a graceful mixture of wis taria, purple and white illaes and vio-

Dental Examiners Meet Here.

The State Board of Dental Examiners will meet in this city on June 12th, beginning at 3 o'clock A. M. The meeting is for the purpose of examining those graduates in dentistry who may present themselves, and who desire to practice in this State.

Infantry Celebration.

PRETTY MAS., PHELPS

Throws Bomb in Justice John's

Court by Defying the Great Tribunal.

Another one of those highly interesting cases where chickens or children are the real reasons for trouble and where quick temper and neighborhood gossip does the rest, happened in Police Court yesterday morning, and Justice John Jeter Crutch-field had it all biffed into his noodle by the eep, was touching and inspired sympa-

Mrs. Mattle Adams is the possessor o

Adams.
Then came the witnesses, Mrs. Phelps had no one to substantiate what she had

"Mr. Robins, take care of the years as spoke the court in a stern voice, and as Mrs. Phelps was being led back she blurted out:
"I didn't get justice yesterday and I didn't get it to-day. I won't pay the free."

was allowed to go home. Her husband did not come to her relief.

Watch Them.

"The Japs have made up their minds to become tall," Newspaper item, 1905. "Whether by taking thought or other-wise, the Japs have attained an average height of five feet nine inches,"—New8p4-ter, item, 190

"Whether by taking wise, the Japa have attained an average beight of five feet nine inches."—NewSparer item, 1919.

"The new Japanese law makes it compulsory to be a six-footer."—NewSpaper item 1929.

What chance have the pigmy lauropeans against the giant Japa?"—Editorial, 1925.—From Puck.

thy. Thus did it all occur.

white batiste.

STYLES

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL !

Why She Did.
Why did she coldly answer "No"?

Hecause, Why, when she stood and watched him go, Did she permit her tears to flow?

Why did she kneel, when it was late,

Bewalling her unhappy fate, And vowing it was only hate For him that had oppressed her so? Because,

Why did she toss awake that night?
Because.
Why did she hope he never might
Again intrude upon her sight?
Because.

Because,
Why was it, when he came next day,
That to his arms she flew to lay.
Her face against his breast and say;
My prince! My king! My heart's delight!

Because. -Chicago Record-Herald.

Musical This Evening.

The musicale to be directed by Mrs.
E. A. Hoen, and given under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of All Saints' Church, will take place this evening in the parish house of All Saints' Church, and promises a fine programme and much enjoyment to all who attend.

Mine Saides Minister.

Miss Selden, Miniaturist.

to all who attend.

Miss Selden, Miniaturist.

Miss Bessie Selden, whose rapidly growing reputation as a minaturist is a source of pride to her Richmond friends, and a steady source of income to herself, has just executed a very important order for a lady living in England.

The order, as finished, shows an exquisite copy, in miniature, of the portrait of Sir Alexander Spottswood, colonial Governor of Virginia, that hangs in the picture gallery of the State Library building. Miss Selden has been particularly happy in the color effects of her miniature and in the excellent likeness she has obtained. It is certainly a compliment to her that her work, on its merit, has already gone so far a-field. She has also recently done a heautiful miniature of Miss Elizabeth Johnston, which shows just the head. Miss Johnston is a sister of the famous Virginia authoress.

Bache—Turpin.

Bache-Turpin. ;

Bache—Turpin.

The wedding of Miss Kate Baylor Turpin, daughter of Mrs. Mary Brantley Turpin and the late Robert Baylor Turpin and granddaughter of the late Mples Turpin, for many years city auditor of Richmond, to Mr. Hardin Kendall Bache, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bache, was celebrated at 6 P. M., May 18th, in the First Baptist Church, this city, the Rev. J. Sidney Peters officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms.

Miss Marin Louise Lorraine, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Cyrus McCormick Bache, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The following were the ushers: Messrs, H. Ellis, Jr., A. T. Faulkner, Abner Pope, .1. Lee Lotraine, Jr., L. O. Boone, and Dr. Cullen S. Pitt. Mr. John Yarbrough presided at the organ.

The bride entered with her cousin, Mr.

organ, e bride entered with her cousin, Mr.

H. L. Lorraine. She was gowned in white radium silk, a tulie veil and carried Bride

H. L. Lorrathe. She was gowned in white radium silk, a tulle veil and carried Bride roses.

The maid of honor wore white mull with green ribbons and had an arm bouquet of maidenhair fern. Only the bridat party and immediate relatives attended the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bache, after the ceremony, the ushers having been entertained in the home of the bride on Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bache left at 11 o'clock last night for an extended Western tour. They will reside in richmona, when they return. Among the guests from a distance who came to Richmond for the wedding were: Mrs. French, wife of Dr. French, of El Paso, Texas; Miss Lella Willis, of Locust Dale, Va.; Mr. Wallace Bache and Miss Emma Bache, of New York; Misses Katle and Besste Hardin, of Louisville, Ky., and Mrs. Stead, of Norfolk, Va. Bridal grits were numerous and very handsome.

Williamsburg Excursion.

Williamsburg Excursion.

Williamsburg Excursion.

The excursion to Williamsburg, scheduled for Saturday, May 18th, and given for the benefit of Sheltering Arms Hospinal, promises to be very pleasant.

Finance withing to go over to Jamesnave at this excursion can do so by private entire excursion can do so by private entire sacred in three hours and two historic planes can be writted at the same time. Finitial of interest in Williamsburg Indiude William and Mary College, the home of the college president, the old Powder Horn and Court House and especially safe British of Lorder House and especially safe British of the challes of here will be given and the college president, the old Powder Horn and Court House and especially safe British of the the safe same as almost every foot of ground and every hullding in the colonial capitales, encursonists will find something to look at the whole time of their stay.

The excursion will be given under the auspices of the Rebekah Peterkin Circle of King's Daughters, and tickets may be procured at the Main Street Station, or in advance, from Mrs. George T. King, of No. 10: West Grace Street; Mrs. W. H. Tatum, of No. 10:8 East Clay Street; and at Shepherd's, Fourth and Broad Streets.

Important Meeting.

Important Meeting.

An important called meeting will be held at the Virginia Home for Incur-ables on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. It is hoped that every member of the board will attend this meeting.

Hudson-Michaux.

wedding of Miss Ellen Eldridge ux, daughter of the late Miller Woodson Michaux and Mrs. Nannie Kean Michaux, of Powhatan county, to Mr. Clement Holt Hudson, son of Mrs. Annic

Clement Holt Hudson, son of Mrs. Annie Bowman Hudson, and the late Judge Isaac Hudson, of Pulaski county, was celebrated in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Newport News, Va., yesterday at 7 P. M., the Rev. Arthur O. Sykes, D. D., officiating.

Church decorations in green and white were developed in palms, ferns, snowballs and white roses. The vested choir of the church led the bridal procession down the center also, singing the wedding hymn from Lohengrin. During the ceremony the soft strains of "Call Mc Thine Own" stole through the church, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was

Diamonds and Other Gems

OUR prices are based on actual worth, and when QUALITY is considered, they are THE LOWEST

All Correspondence Given Careful Attention. Goods Sent on Approval, Express Prepald.

Washington, D. C.

Poems You Ought to Know.

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fall to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.--Prof. Charles Ellot Norion.

By WILLIAM GILMORE SIMMS.

William Glimore Simms was born at Charleston, S. C., and died in 1870. He was the editor of the City Gazette, published lyrical and other poems, and many novels of the Revolutionary war.

ITHE and long as the serpent train ITHE and long as the serpent train,
Springing and clinging from tree to tree,
Now darting upward, now down again,
With a twist and a twirl that are strange to see;
Never took serpent a deadlier hold,
Never the cougar a wilder spring,
Strangling the oak with the boa's fold,
Spanning the beach with the condor's wing.

Yet no foe that we fear to seek,—
The boy leaps wild to thy rudo embrace;
Thy bulging arms bear as soft a cheek
As ever on lover's breast found place;
On thy waving train is a playful hold
Thou shalt never to lighter grasp persuade;
While a maiden sits in thy drooping fold,
And swings and sings in the pocuday shadel And swings and sings in the noonday shade

O giant strange of our Southern woods!

Dost thou spring and cling in our woodlands yet?

Does the maiden still swing in thy giant clasp?

played by the organist, Mr. McNichols, played by the organist, Mr. McNichols, as a recessional.

Miss Mary N. Michaux, of Powhatan, was the maid of honor, and Mr. Join Hudson, brother of the groom, the best man. A charming group of bridesmaids included Miss Martina Ragiand, of Kentucky; Miss Sadie De Jarnette, of Richmond; Misses Bessie Payne, Annie Hudson, Annie Hamilton and Claudia Perkins; of Newport News, Va.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. William Julian Imichaux, of Newport News, who gave her away. She wore a handsome liberty satin gown, en princesse, trimmed in Spanish lace. Her tulle veil was caught with a diamond sunburst, the groom's gift, and she carried a white livery bound prayer book.

The maid of honor was beautifully attired in white mull and lace, and had a coronation bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaids were in white chiffen, with Val. lace trimmings. Their flowers were white carractions.

bridesmaids were in white clinion, wind val. lace trimmings. Their flowers were white carnations.

The list of groomsmen included Messrs. Edward Merrill and Clarence England, of Logan, W. Va.; Messrs. John Cottrell, Raymond Hudson, Walter Hoover and Milliam Shumate, of Newport News. They were in full evening dress.

Miss Mildred Michaux and Master Clarence Ashby were the ribbon holders, and were both dressed in white.

The bride and groom received many beautiful wedding gifts. They are now enjoying a wedding tour to Washington, Baltimore and the Northern cities. Both have many friends in Richmond, the bride being widely connected here, and the groom, a graduate of Richmond College, now in business at Logan, W. Va. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were the Rev. Robert Hudson, of Bland county, and Mrs. Carter B. Fleklin, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Won Scholarship.

Won Scholarship.

Miss Eleanor C, Houston, of this city, daughter of Mrs. Josephine E. Houston, granddaughter of Mrs. John Dooley, of No. 214 East Main Street, and niece of Major James H. Dooley, of "Maymont," is has won a scholarship for next year in the women's afternoon life class of the New York School of Art, and has received third mention in the whole school, for the work she has done in painting. Miss Houston received a scholarship last year for competitive work sent by her to New York as a student of the Richmond Art School. She has been hard at work in New York during the winter, but will return to Richmond after a few weeks, to spend the summer at home.

The fine stand she has taken in the

a few weeks, to spend the sammer at home.

The fine stand she has taken in the New York school affords the greatest gratification to her many relatives and friends in Richmond, where Miss Houston is deservedly most popular. She will continue her art studies next winter, and, from what she has accomplished in the past, high hopes are entertained for her in the future.

The New York Times, of May 13th, which contains a mention of the award tor Miss Houston, makes mention also of a scholarship given in the composition class to Mr. Stewart Tyson, of this city.

Anderson—Bishop.

Anderson-Bishop.

Anderson—Bishop.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Edna Frances Anderson, daughter of Mrs. Nellie Shelton Anderson, of Ringgold, near Danville, Va., to Mr. Joseph' Heber B ishop, of Thomasville, N. C. The marriage will take place in the home of the bride's mother, on the 5th of June, at 9 P. M. Miss Anderson is the daughter of the late Mr. John D. Anderson, of Pittsylvania county, and a niece of Hon. Thomas Shelton, of Norfolk, Mr. Bishop is a prominent business man of Thomasville.

Schoenbaum—Bowles.

Mrs. F. J. Bowles, of No. 3 West Marshall Street, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Georgia Tuintus, to Dr. Max Schoebaum, of Vontray, Va. The marriage will take place in the early part of Personal Mention.

Miss Ellen Carpenter, of Clifton Forge Va., is spending some time in Richmond

Miss Anna E. Tinsley, who has been the guest of Mrs. Ramon D. Garcin for the past several months, has returned to her home in Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Triplett, of Port Norfolk, Va., spent several days of last week with Dr. and Mrs. Garcin,

The Rev. Dr. Frank J. Brooke, formerly The Rev. Dr. Frank J. Brooke, telled as pastor of the Presbyterian Church, at Romney, West Va., on the first Sunday in June, as his Richmond relatives will be interested to hear.

Miss Ellen Glasgow and Miss R. G. Glasgow, who have been at Atlantic City, were registered at the Seville in New York city on May 14th.

Mrs. Charles Harris, of Charlottes-ville, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. M. Bowers, in Richmond. Mrs. Joseph Addison, of Ashland, Va.,

Mrs. Joseph Addison, of Ashland, Va., formerly Miss Christine Hanckel, of Charleston, S. C., is now the guest of her mother, Mrs. Middleton Hanckel at the West Point, New York City.

Mr. Arthur C. Jones is visiting his sister, Mrs. S. P. Farmer, in Charlottesville.

Miss Carletta Tompkins, of Glendower,

THE GRAPE-VINE SWING.

O giant strange of our Southern woods!

I dream of thee still in the well-known spot,
Though our vessel strains o'er the ocean floods,
And the northern forest beholds thee not;
I think of thee still with a sweet regret,
As the cordage yields to my playful grasp,

The think are the gold allow in our woodlands yet?

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1903. One is published each day, Vn., is spending some time with sister, Mrs. Samuel Tompkins, in Miss Lizzle Atkins, of Staunton, Va., s visiting her aunt, Mrs. James H. Dooley Mrs, C. P. Kearfott, of Martinsville, Va., and her daughter, Miss Mary Lou Kearfott, of Hollins Institute, are spend-ing some time in Richmond, and were present at the graduating exercises of Richmond Medical College, where Mr. Conrad Kearfott received his diploma.

Mrs. James E. Hare, of Baltimore, who has been the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Schleuter in Richmond, will travel South before returning home.

Miss Elizabeth Street, of Christians-burg, Va., is visiting friends here.

Miss C. Bruce Goolrick, daughter of Dr. William B. Goolrick, of Frederleks-burg, Vn., succeeds Miss Mary Irview Whitehead as supprintending nurse at Sheltering Arms Hospital. Infantry Celebration.

The forty-fifth anniversary of the Fifteenth Virginia Infantry Association is to be held at West Point, Va., on May 24th. General A. L. Phillips, chairman of the committee, and Mr. A. M. Lyon, secretary, are exceedingly anxious that every one of the boys will co-operate in the onderwor to make the reunion a complete success. Trains to West Point from this city will leave at 9:30 A. M.

Mrs. Nannie Rose Peak, of Norfolk, has issued cards for the marriage of her daughter, Pearls Fitzhugh, to Dr. Fred. Gochnaur, of Upperville. The wedding will take place in the Second Presbyterlan Church at Norfolk on Wcdaesday afternoon, May 23d. Dr. Gochnaur is the son of P. S. Gochnaur, of Upperville, Vo.

Miss Rebecca Walker, who has been visiting Miss Kathleen Woods at the State University, has sone to Campbells, near Keswick, where she will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Julian Morris.

Messrs, S. T. Beverldge, W. C. Bentley, F. W. Christian, John W. Gordon, Thomas Poindextes and John M. Taylor are among the delegates to the Episcopal Council at Alexandria, Va.

Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, who has recently returned from chaperoning her niece during a charming trip to Annaro lis, Md., left yesterday for Greensbore N. C., to attend a large and handsome entertainment there, in honor of Miss Fry.

Mr. Andrew Antoni, the well known confectioner, is at ipresent solourning with his son, at Winthrop Beach, Mass.

Mrs. H. B. Smith, of Hanover, Va., is the guest this work of Mrs. R. T. Hunter.

Mrs. Charles Bosaer left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., to visit her friend, Mrs. Armatt. From Washington Mrs. Bosher will return to Williamsburz, Va., where she will be the guest of President and Mrs. Lyon Tyler. She will spend some time with her mother in Norfolk before coming home.

Mrs. James Gaines and Miss Alma Samuci are enjoying a trip to Natural Bridge, Mrs. James H. Parker has left for Wytheville to spend the summer there with the Misses Sexton.

Mr. Charles McMullen is the guest of Mr. C. A. Taylor, in Lynchburg.

Miss Helen Montague, who is being entertained in the Washington home of Mrs. Basil Gordon, was one of the guests at a linner given Toosday evening by Mrs. Gordon to Senator and Mrs. Rayner, of Baltimore. The Washington Post of Wednesday says: "The decerations were

Distinctive Styles

In Oxfords

New Grey Sailor Tie

Polo Oxford . . for . .

We match your Dresses in all colors

Try on a pair of those wonderful E-Z OXFORDS

Seymour Sycle

Corner 7th and Broad Streets

FOR PRINCESS JEWS' LOYALTY TO THE SOUTH

And the Dead Who Sleep in Hebrew Cemetery Are Fittingly Honored.

HAVE EVER BEEN PATRIOTS

Mr. Joseph C. Taylor Pays Eloquent Tribute to Their Fidelity and Love of Country.

Momorial services in honor of the Confederate dead who sleep in the Hebrew Cometery were held yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock at the cemetery, under the auspices of the Hebrew Ladies' Memorial Association. Besides a large gathering of friends, Pickett Camp, Lee Camp and Companies B and F, Seventieth Regiment, were in attendance,

The service's were opened by music by The services were opened by music by lardella's band. The Rev. Dr. E. N. Callsch delivered the following prayer:

Oh, eternal God, our Father, who art the all-wise and potent monarch of universal life, we beseech Thy blessing upon this hour and this ceremony. Thou art the God of hosts, and Thou hast given to Thy servants the heart of courage to face death biassing upon this hour and this ceremony. Thou art the God of hosts, and Thou hast given to Thy servants the heart of courage to face death in all its forms, and men have fought in all generations for what appeared to them to be just and true and righteous. Yet we realize that the issue of battle is with Thee. Thou guidest the destinies of the nations of the carth. Thou sottest up kings and causest kings to fall. In Thy wisdom dynasties disappear and empires fade away. In the furthrance of Thy divine plan the worlds move and all that is proceeds upon its appointed way.

"As we stand here to-day on this consecrated place we recall the memories of these brave men. As far as the issue of battle was concerned they died in vain. But can it be said that in all things they died in vain; that to no purpose their souls winged their untimely flight back to Thee? Nay, nothing in Thy universe is in vain. Nothing is lost; nothing moves or falls to no purpose. The drop of dew exhaled from the flower's divinely-tinted petal comes back in the summer showers to feed the flower whence it came. The sear and yellow leaf, propping from the tree, falls, at its root to nourish and sustain. Death is the nurse of life and decay the parent of birth. No fairer fruitage over flowered from aught that faded than blossoms for us the inspiration of new and noble life from the death of these, our fellow-heroes. "Thou, God, dost hold thy souls within thy keeping. We here give reverence to their memories by this service of all that is true and just and generous. On the battlefield of life may we be heroes as these have been. May we fight, as did they, for honor, for home and for a noble cause, and in Thy wisdom, the hour strikes for us to cease, may we lay dawn our atmis with the consclousness of the true victory won by on honorable and useful life. Amen."

Mr. Taylor's Address.

A quartette consisting of Mrs. John Muss Mabel McBaine, Mr. Mose

Mr. Taylor's Address.

A quartette consisting of Mrs. John Murphy, Miss Mabel McBaine, Mr. Moses May, and Mr. Wilkes, accompanied on the organ by Mr. Jacob, followed with a hymn.

Mr. Arthur Levy then introduced the speaker, Mr. Joseph C. Taylor,
Mr. Taylor then began by speaking of the observance of memorial day generally. He said now that the Civil Warwas sinking so far in the dim past, men were able to look back at those sad days in a different and broader spirit. All are Americans now, and both North and South hold their memorial days with hearts full of sadness, but not bitterness.

Mr. Taylor went on to say that the Jew stood as a partriot in all countries. In America his record was the envy of any race. During the Revolution, Mr. Haym Salomoan contributed probably more money to the cause than any other individual in America. The ratio, according to population of the Jews, who have served in American armies, is larger than that of any other race.

One of the best known Jewish soldiers fair figures in the little drama.

There was humor and pathos all wrapped in the same bundle that was presented to the One John and opened before the grateful audience that filled the house. The humor was genuine, was original and was "catching," while the pathos, was than that of any other race.

One of the best known Jowish soldiers was David De'Leon, who distinguished himself in the Mexican War and served with great gallantry as first sergeant-general in the Confederate army. Mrs. Mattle Adams is the fowls prowl about lot of chickens. The fowls prowl about where they can find most worms. Mrs Nellie Phelps lives at No. 612 State Street Fulton and next door to her resides Mrs. dams. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Phelps was athering some raddishes in her front and when Mrs. Adams appeared in the Many Fought for South. During the Civil War the Rev. Dr. Michelbacher pottioned General Cooper Michelbacher petitioned General Cooper to alow the Jews in the army one day off in order that they might observe certain services. The general replied that it was impossible; for if he did the ranks would be disorganized by the absence of so many soldiers.

Mr. Taylor finished with a glowing tribute to the Jewish heroes who fell in the Civil War.

yard when Mrs. Adams appeared in the other yard.

"She spit in my eye and I hit her with the broom-stick. I would have hit her some more, but the stick broke," explained Mrs. Phelps to the One John.

"I never did a thing to her. She was mad about a case that was here yesterday, and just ran out in the street-and hit me with the stick over my shoulder and across my back," said Mrs. Adams.

"Did you spit in her eye?" q\u224eried Justice Crutchfield.

"I never spit at all," answered Mrs. Adams. Civil War.
"America" was then sung by all pres-

"America" was then sung by all present, after which Rev. Dr. E. N. Calisch gave the benediction. A salute was fired over the graves of the Confederate dead and the services closed with taps.

Wreaths for the soldiers graves were received from the Benior and Junior Hollywood Memorial Associations, Senior Onkwood Memorial Association, Mrs. Joseph Bryan and others. had no one to substantiate what she had said, and there were witnesses on the other side who said that she assuited Mrs. Adams.

"Mrs. Phelps. I'll have to fine you and I'm going to make it heavy. Give me $10," said the One John.

"I won't pay a cent of it." retorted Mrs. Phelps.

"Oh, yes, you will," said the court.
"But I will not. You won't get a cent from me. I just won't pay you anything for a fine," came back the reply from the lady, who appeared to be about twenty-live and was very good-looking.

"Mr. Robins, take care of the prisoner." spoke the court in a stern voice, and as

Calendar for the Week,

Training hops during the week, getting eady for horse-racing on Saturday, thurch, Bunday-school and baseball on church, Sunday sector and Darker and Prayer meetings Thursday night is the regular programme for Independence people. There is a little variation just now on account of the California disaster.—Independence (Orc.) Enterpriso.

Libelous Post Card.

Punch vouches for the statement that post cards are being sent to the members of the Trowbridge Foot Hengles, containing the following: "A show of pupples will be held on Tuesday at the Mart, Trowbridge, at 2:30, when it is hoped you will be present." She was not locked in the pen, but permitted to sit on the bench near the cage until about 12 o'clock, when she

Her husband did not come to her relief. Mrs. Phelps, after court, told Justice Crutchfield that several people had told her to "give you the mischief," and this would ensure justice. "You gave me the mischief and you got justice," was all the comment that, the great judge had to make. All of the other cases in court were drunks, and they were all scaked, Beautify the Complexion Nadinola

The UNEQUALED BEAUTIFIER, endorsed by thousands; guaranteed to remove freekles, pimples, all facial discolorations and restore the beauty of youth.

The worst cases in twenty days. 50c. and $1.00 at all leading drug stores, or by mail.

Percentage by NATIONAL TOILET CO.. Paris Team

Prepared by NATIONAL TOILET CO., Paris, Tenn.

After The Shock of an Accident, Wound, Surgery or severe Illness there is nothing so gratefully

Fehr's Malt Tonic

taken by the patient or with such prompt recuperative effect as

It is a nerve building liquid food, rich in nutritive elements. It makes new red blood and knits up the shattered nerves and wasted tissues.

An Ideal Tonic for Convalescents.

FOR SALE BY ALL DRUGGISTS

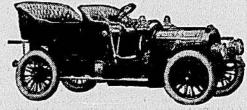

Fehr's Malt Tonic Dept., Louisville, Kv.

B. A. Blenner's

Automobile Garage,

AGENT IN VIRGINIA FOR THE

Incomparable White Steam Touring Car.

When you buy a Car get one that has proven its worth, and combines elegance, comfort, reliability and perfect control. Compare the WHITE with any $5,000 Car on the market.

I have the following good second-hand Cars for sale at a sacrifice: One Model C, Winton; one Type, one Rambler, and two Model D, White Steam Cars. Call and see them.

'Giant' Portland Cement and Twisted Steel Bars for Reinforced Concrete Construction.

(A. COLE BLANTON, Engineer.) Go and see our new building, now in course of erection (Fourteenth and Dock), for a demonstration of the use of these materials. We are

SEND FOR "THE TEST OF TIME," AN ILLUSTRATED BOOK OF CONCRETE WONDERS, FREE.

Egg Baking Polvder

Absolutely Pure---Guaranteed.

Made from whites of fresh eggs, grain phosphates, bicarbonate of soda, small quantity corn starch.

Will not produce dyspepsia. Finest leavening powder. Requires one-third less powder, and accomplishes better results than any other Baking Powder. Ask your grocer for it.

Rooof Your House With

..Vulcanite Ready Roofing..

and your roof problem for many years to come is solved. The best is always the cheapest. VULCANITE has proven its worth. For sale by

Watkins-Cottrell Company, SOUTHERN AGENTS, RICHMOND, VA.

Roses, Designs. Largest Stock.

Furniture, Draperies, Stained Glass, Iardwood Ploors, Art Metal Work, Hardwood Ploors, Art Metal Work, Fresco Painting, Wall Hangings, etc.

Designs ".ade and estimates fur-

Cut Flowers, Hammond,

Florist.

109 East Broad Street.

BALTIMORE, MD. Decorators and Furnishers

The Louis A.Dieter Co.

Richmond Representative, R. L. PETERS, No. 9 N. Seventh Street,

Long Strolls